

Weekly Quiz

1. Which of the following has won the rights to host the 2023 Rugby World Cup?
 - a. Australia
 - b. France
 - c. South Africa
2. What is Argentina's Navy searching for the South Atlantic ocean?
 - a. a military plane that went missing after mysteriously disappearing from radar
 - b. one of their submarines that went missing with 44 crew on board
 - c. an unexploded missile that malfunctioned during test launch
3. Sadly, Malcolm Young died last week aged 64. Which iconic Australian band did he and his brother start in 1973?
 - a. Midnight Oil
 - b. Cold Chisel
 - c. AC/DC
4. A 500-year-old painting by the famous artist Leonardo da Vinci has just sold for $US450 million. What does the painting depict?
 - a. a woman smelling a flower
 - b. Christ holding a crystal orb
 - c. an army going into a battle
5. Which of the following is being trialled in NSW?
 - a. driving tests which are conducted in a driving simulator instead of an actual car with a driving tester
 - b. electric police cars
 - c. digital drivers' licences
6. What is special about a three-member women's bobsled team that has qualified for the 2018 Winter Olympics?
 - a. they only learnt to bobsled three weeks ago
 - b. two of the three are legally blind
 - c. they are from Nigeria which is not known for winter sports
7. Flash floods took the lives of over 14 people in Greece's capital city last week. What is the name of Greece's capital city?
 - a. Athens
 - b. Barcelona
 - c. Rome
8. What is Mungo Man, and why has it been in the news lately?
 - a. Mungo Man is the latest Marvel movie and is currently being filmed around central Australia
 - b. the 40,000 year old remains of an Aboriginal man which is being returned to his ancestral home
 - c. Mungo man is the name of a new sculpture that is currently being installed in front of the steps of the Sydney Opera House
9. Tesla's Elon Musk has unveiled the company's latest electric vehicle. What type of vehicle is it?
 - a. a truck
 - b. a train
 - c. a bus
10. The Trump administration has considered lifting a federal ban on the importation of ...?
 - a. goods from Cuba
 - b. body parts from African elephants
 - c. firearms
11. On average, how much more do Australian men earn compared to women?
 - a. $8,923 more
 - b. $14,734 more
 - c. $26,527
12. What has confectionery giant Nestle pledged to ban from its goods?
 - a. eggs from chickens kept in cages
 - b. palm oil
 - c. unrecyclable packaging
13. What reward is being offered by a US couple whose world-record winning cats disappeared after a house fire?
 - a. a Ferrari
 - b. $1 million
 - c. $100,000 of bitcoin
14. In which state or territory would you find the city of Launceston?
 - a. Western Australia
 - b. New South Wales
 - c. Tasmania
15. What has been found in a 130 year old painting by the famous artist Vincent van Gogh?
 - a. a real (but dead) grasshopper
 - b. a secret message
 - c. a lock of his own hair

Weekly Quiz - Visual

1
This man has had his powers as leader of his country taken away. What is his last name?
a. Zuma
b. Mugabe
c. Kenyatta

2
These British royals reportedly played extras in the latest film of this movie series. What is the name of this movie series?

3
In which country was this celebration photo taken last week?
a. Australia b. Honduras c. Peru

4
Which Scandinavian country has this flag?
a. Iceland
b. Finland
c. Sweden

5
Which country does this sportsman normally call home?