

Weekly Quiz

1. The World Health Organisation (WHO), is calling for the development of at least 12 new antibiotics to combat the antibiotic resistance that is increasing around the world. Antibiotics are used to treat ...?
 - a. bacterial infections
 - b. viral infections
 - c. fungal infections
2. Parents of children under two travelling on Jetstar domestic flights will now ...?
 - a. be able to request wider seats
 - b. have to pay for individual seats for their children
 - c. have to pay a fee to have their children sitting on their laps
3. Which sport has introduced a ban for English players caught 'diving' during games?
 - a. soccer
 - b. rugby
 - c. boxing
4. Donald Trump has recently been accused of...?
 - a. revealing highly classified information to Russian officials
 - b. insulting the leader of China
 - c. threatening to take military action against Mexico if they don't build 'the wall'
5. In which sport has 25-year-old Eleni Glouftsis become the first Australian female field umpire?
 - a. AFL
 - b. NRL
 - c. A-League (soccer)
6. Tragically, a healthy 16-year-old student in the US has died from heart problems caused by ...?
 - a. eating too much sugar in one sitting
 - b. eating too much fat in a single meal
 - c. drinking too much caffeine in a short amount of time
7. Which country has a global development project that is known as the 'New Silk Road' project?
 - a. India
 - b. South Africa
 - c. China
8. The Government has received criticism recently when it was revealed that they had approved a $6000 grant for ...?
 - a. a Yowie group
 - b. a UFO (unidentified flying objects) group
 - c. a Bunyip Group
9. The beaches of the uninhabited World Heritage-listed Henderson Island, off South America, contain the highest levels of ...?
 - a. unidentified bug species in the world
 - b. reptiles in the world
 - c. plastic rubbish in the world
10. What caused major disruption to peak hour traffic in Sydney last Thursday?
 - a. bus drivers went on strike
 - b. a truck caught fire on the Sydney Harbour Bridge
 - c. train drivers were on strike
11. Why has the French luxury brand Chanel faced criticism recently?
 - a. they are selling a range of jewellery that uses New Zealand Maori designs
 - b. they are selling boomerangs
 - c. they are selling albino alligator skin shoes
12. Australian Jack Miller was lucky to walk away unscathed from a massive crash during his event in Le Mans, France at the weekend. In what form of motor racing does he compete?
 - a. Motorcycling
 - b. Formula 1
 - c. Rallying
13. Nestle have failed in an attempt to trademark the shape of its famous ...?
 - a. Pinky chocolate bar
 - b. KitKat chocolate bar
 - c. Aero chocolate bar
14. The percentage of Australians that live within 100 kilometres of the coast is ...?
 - a. 55 percent
 - b. 80 percent
 - c. 98 percent
15. Princess Mako will lose royal status when she marries her 'commoner' fiancée. Princess Mako is from which country?
 - a. Denmark
 - b. Turkey
 - c. Japan

Weekly Quiz - Visual

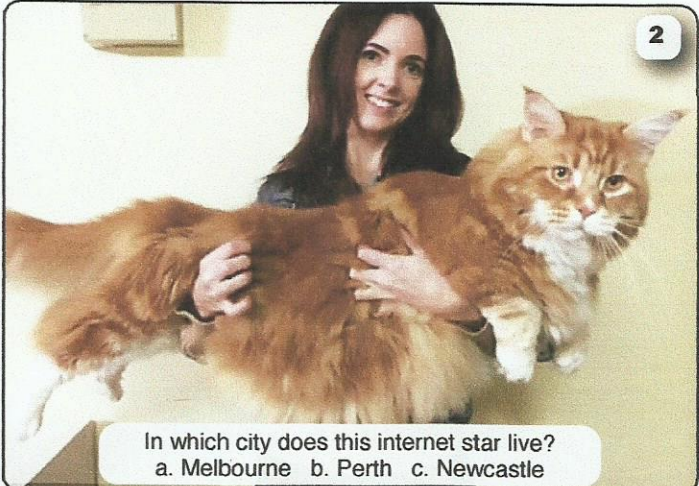

1

In which country was this grueling marathon held recently?

2

In which city does this internet star live?
a. Melbourne b. Perth c. Newcastle

3

What is the name of this sport that was part the Blacktown Medieval Fayre at the weekend?
a. Polo b. Caber Riding c. Jousting

4

Which country has this flag?

5

This photo was taken at the weekend. What is the first name of the woman on the right?

woman on the right?